IN MEMORIAM

BOOTH—In fond and loving memory of our darling little babe, Barbara Joan Booth, who died on Nov. 19, 1919, age
thirteen months.

One blossom fell from the gates afar,
Tenderly on earth, with loving care
Nursed it, yet hardly knew its worth
Till an angel came with noiseless tread
And quickly gathered our blossom for
Paradise 'tis said.

Zealand. Please copy.
They shall go out no more, oh ye
Who speak earth's farewell
your tears,
Who see your cherished ones go
And come not back, through years.

There is a place—there is a shore,
From which they shall go out no
—Never forgotten by Mother,
—Sisters Margaret, Jean, Barbara

SCOTT—In loving memory of Robert
Scott, who departed this life Nov.
19th, 1914, husband of Goldie M.,
brother of Mona and Billie Roy,
son-in-law of the late Mrs.
Cowdy, of Broadview ave.

Yes, you have gone across the ri-
To the shores of evergreen,
How I long to see your dear face
But the river flows between.

—Goldie
Your pleasant smile and kindly face
Your fond, true heart is still.
The lips that spoke so kind to all,
Are closed forever still.

—Mona, Bill and Ol-SUTTON—In loving memory of our brother Will, killed in action Nov.
1916.

"Died at his Post."
—Inserted by his sisters, Eva Florence.

SIMMONS—In loving memory of my husband, Pte. A. A. Simmons,
163700, 84th Batt., killed in action,
18th, 1916.

Four years have passed since that sad
When the one we loved was called a-
Sleep on, dear Alf, and take your rest.
They miss you most who loved you best.
'Twas hard not to be there in the hour
death.

To have caught the sigh of his part-
breath;

One last fond word I might have heard
And breathed in his ear one parting word
Only those who have loved and lost
Can understand war's bitter cost.

—Loving Wife and Children

SIMMONS—In memory of our lov-father, Pte. A. A. Simmons, 84th Ba-
No. 163700, killed in action Nov.
1916.

It's lonesome here without you, father,
And sad the weary way,
For life is not the same to us
Since you were called away.
But peaceful be your rest, dear father,
'Tis sweet to breathe your name.
In life we loved you very dear,
In death we do the same.
